Dear Stan:

I sold three of the four pieces for you, the 1891-CC @ $275.00, the 1893-CC @ $145.00, and the 1909-D @ $100.00, for a total of $520.00. My bank check for this amount is enclosed along with the return of the 1859. Sorry I couldn't sell it but maybe we can move it to someone else.

If I get to New York next week I will leave the bank with Charlie for you but I did not take the $3.00 off the check because I am not sure I will be there. The bank will work with cents, nickels, and dimes. Do not use quarters, halves, or $20 gold in it or you will bend the arm. You can use $1 and $2½ gold if you wish.

Thanks again for the approval shipment and hope you get this by Saturday.

Regards,

LOUIS W. GOLD

Dear Stan:

Seeing my credit is getting better, please send the 1931 and 1927-S along so I can send them to my customer for approval.

I talked to Jack Klausen yesterday and he told me that you graded the 1870-CC equal to the one from the Stack sale in that it was not struck as sharply but had less bag marks. I wanted the 1920-S but he told me you beat me to it.

Thanks and best regards,

Jon

Stan:

The $20 gold came in this morning so enclosed are the 23 pieces to cover the 1855-0 and the 1860-0.

Haven't heard yet on the 1920-S and will send the 1931 along to another customer and see what we can do.

Thanks and best regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Stan:

Well I guess my batting average dropped, but I should still be in the Top 10. I managed to move the 1925-S, but still no luck on the rest. Enclosed is a check for the 1925-S, and the return of the 1908-S, 1909, and 1909-D. If you get a real BU 1909-D let me know. One of the customers that I sent this one to still wants a BU. Thank very much for letting me practice batting with your coins. Some day I might get that home run.
